

LIBRARY EXHIBIT

Relationship - Man and Nature," a photographic exhibition, is being featured in the Duxbury Free Library's main adult services area from March 2 through March 14. The work of photographer Suzanne Klay, the exhibition combines photography and quotations celebrating nature.

COMMUNITY INTEREST
Library Director Janice Neu-
bauer says the exhibition is one that should arouse a great deal

LIBRARY
(Continued from Page 1)

of community interest in view of the prevailing concern with conservation and preserving the natural environment.

Thursday, March 12, 1970

COLLECTIONS

Art selected from private collections of residents will be shown in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of Duxbury Free Library during March.

Contributors to the collection show are Dr. and Mrs. H.C. Bumpus, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bush-Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Sherburne Carter, Mrs. Winthrop Coffin (King Caesar Rd.), Mr. and Mrs. Richard (Adams Hill, Mr. Hasby, Mrs. Herbert Hudson, and Mrs. Magnums, John May, Richmond Wright and Mr. and Mrs. James Percott.

Duxbury Clipper, Thursday, February 5, 1970

POSTER EXHIBIT

A selection of posters of World War I from the collection of Richmond Wright of Bay View Rd. will be exhibited in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of the Junbury Free Library from Feb. 2-22. The posters are being displayed for their historic and sociologic interest as well as posters of their era from Mr. Wright's collection have recently been acquired by the Boston Museum of Fine Arts and the War Museum at West Point Military Academy.

SOUTH SHORE NEWS
Wednesday, March 11, 1970

Duxbury Library Has Photo Show

DUXBURY — "Relationship
—Man and Nature", a photographic exhibition, is being featured in the Duxbury Free Library's main adult services
area thru March 14.
The work of photographer Suzanne Klay, the exhibition combines photography and quotations celebrating nature.
Library Director Janice Neu-
bauer states that the exhibition is one that should arouse a great deal of community interest in view of the prevailing concern with conservation and preserving the natural environment.
Mrs. Klay, a free-lance photographer who resides in North Marshallfield, is a graduate of the Rhode Island School of Design.
Her work has been shown in Cambridge and Boston.
Described by the photographer
as "a visual, positive approach to the conservation there", the special display now in Duxbury has been exhibited in several area libraries.